JUBILEE RUNS GOOD RACE.

GIVES COLONEL JACK MUCH WEIGHT AND A BEATING IN FAST TIME.

Trance Takes Another Stake Race and Again Equals the Track Record-Rumors of More Changes in Track Policies.

New York, April 20.—Jubilee gave further evidence of his good class when he outgamed and defeated Colonel Jack in the seven furlongs handicap at Aqueduct this afternoon. Jubilee was conceding twenty-five pounds by the scale to Colonel Jack and, although the latter led from the start, Jubilee got up to outfinish him under a skillful hand ride by Shaw. The colt's performance was a remarkable one and demonstrates that he is a three-year-old to always be considered. There is always the inclination to overrate a horse which shows up prominently so early in the season, but good and conservative judges predicted after his race today that the three-year-olds that will beat him in the early part of the season can be counted on one hand. An ungainly head which is further accentuated by a pair of lop ears, makes him anything but beautiful to the eye, but this is forgotten when he settled down to business. Jubilee began slowly and was last on the far turn. But once straightened away in the long stretch be came gamely with slight urging on the part of Shaw. Burns, who rode Colonel Jack, did not help the chances of his mount by turning around to see what the others were doing and Shaw clearly outrode him at the finish.

Trance won the Ozone Stakes, the program's feature, in good style, running the half-mile in 40% seconds, equalling the time she made in the Rose Stakes the second day of the meeting, and which is the track record. Among those behind Trance was Sca Swell, one of the good two-year-old developments of the New Orleans meeting. Sea Swell was the opening favorite, but there was little support for him. He appeared to be lame when he came on the track and tired badly after running second for three furlongs. Mr. Keene started two in this race. Apron and Voodoo, and the entry was favorite, but both were unplaced. Trance was weeded out of the Keene yearlings last fall, while Apron and Voodoo were reserved, as was Wildpigeon, which was beaten by Trance in the Rose Stakes. Erbert, from the stable of Sam Emery, was heavily

Wildpigeon, Mr. Keene's starter in the other two-year-old race, was backed from 8 to 5 to 4 to drive to beat the favorite by a length and a half.

His victory was the first of the season for the Newcastle Stable. Three favorites won, while Trance shared the position with the Keene entry in the Ozone Stakes.

These are the days of rumors, and some new scheme-of turf reform is heard of on every day, but usually are idle dreams. One of these, that hobbed up today, was that the price of admission to the track would be ralsed. This was met with an emphatic denial from all sources of authority.
Another, which was neither confirmed nor denled,
was that at the next meeting of the Jockey Club stewards a rule would be made prohibiting trainers

an emphatic denial from all sources of authority. Another, which was neither confirmed nor denied, was that at the next meeting of the Jockey Club stewards a rule would be made prohibiting trainers from going into the betting ring. This would put them practically on the same footing as the riders. There is no doubt that some of those who travel on a trainer's badge are much busier about the betting ring than in the paddock, but the stewards are not in the habit of forecasting prospective turf legislation of this character, and the rumor may turn out to be baseless as have many others.

Gus Straus pulled up very lame after the steeple-chase, and from appearances will not go to the post again soon.

Jockeys Fairbrother and McCahey left tonight for Baltimore, and will ride at the Pimlico meeting. Trainer Thomas McCreery, who is still in the hospital at Washington, is showing considerable improvement, according to advices received from Mrs. McCreery.

WALTER MILLER'S RIDING THE FEATURE.

Guides Four Winners to Victory at Oakland and MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1908. Wins the Fickle Crowd Back.

Oakland, Cal., April 20.—Walter Miller's superb horsemanship was the outstanding feature of the ing at Oakland today. The champion jockey scored four victories in quick succession with Martinmas, Prudent, Gateway and Lisaro. Only the first named was actual favorite in the betting. Miller did not ride in the fifth, but landed the favorite, Fireball, in third place, although the horse was palpably unfit.

was actual rayorne in the spetting. Sinter did not ride in the fifth, but landed the favorite, Fireball, in third place, although the horse was palpably unfit.

The enthusiasm of the great crowd of spectators had steadily increased and finally climaxed with his fourth achievement on Lisaro, Lucky Baldwin's moody son of Rey el Santa Anita, whose convincing performance today today effectually removed whatever doubt may have existed as to the culpability of his former trainer, G. W. Baldwin, in the matter of the horse's recent unsatisfactory running.

The layers enjoyed a timely respite from the past several days of unprofitable tilts with the players, only one favorite in six materializing, Martinmas in the opening race. The card was full of promises, but did not pan out well.

An unpleasing incident which developed was the practical leaving at the post of Pontotoc in the fifth, the only odds-on favorite that started during afternoon. Whether McIntyre, the jockey, or Mr. Dwyer, the starter, was to blame, is not known.

The Mist was allowed to be withdrawn at the eleventh hour on account of a death in the family of of the owner, D. W. Ross.

Two well-known racers, Janeta and Phalanx, were put out of commission during the week by the same route, to wit, colliding with other horses while being worked on the track during the morning hours. Phalanxx was thought to be so badly injured as to necessitate his destruction, but he will recover.

Voladay is in a bad way and may never again face the starter.

Mr. Dwyer suspended jockey McIntyre for four days last Saturday and also restored Fred White White the apprentice rider to favor.

Charles Bowman bought the two-year-old King Ferdinand from W. E. Applegate for $700 and P. Sullivan acquired Sophomore from M. J. Daly during the week.

There is a report in circulation that neither Judge A. W. Hamilton nor Ed Cole will be reappointed at Santa Anita next season.

John Oliver Keene has abandoned his proposed trip to Russia. The horses not sold at next Saturday's weeding-out sa

JOHN SANFORD'S FORMIDABLE STABLE.

The horses of the Sanford stable are never raced until the Saratoga meeting comes on, but it annually introduces a fresh element of high-class racers and its advent in the mimic warfare of the track is always highly popular. In recent years such stars as Chuctanunda, Rockton, Molly Brant, Mohawk II., Kennyetto and Vails, among many others, have worthily demonstrated the excellence of the thoroughbreds raised at the Sanfords' Hurricana Stud Farm. This year the stable is made up of thirty-two horses, of which seventeen are two-year-olds, some of which are reported to be real flyers. The stable list for 1908 is as follows:

GOOD TRACK IN PROSPECT AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., April 20.—The Kentucky Association track is improving hourly, and another such day as this will put the course in good condition for the opening of the meeting Wednesday. It was at least four seconds faster at four o'clock this afternoon than at eight this morning. Best work this morning was three-quarters in 1:23 by Al Muller.

at least four seconds faster at four o'clock this afternoon than at eight this morning. Best work this morning was three-quarters in 1:23 by Al Muller.

Stables arriving today were those of J. S. Ward, Sam Rothert and William Donohue. J. U. Strode will arrive tomorrow with three horses.

Secretary Letcher was not able to leave his room today because of a severe attack of chills iast night. George Dillon and Tom Brown are looking after matters in the secretary's office. Will Shelly is expected from Louisville tonight. Starter Holtman will arrive tomorrow. "Hold On Jimmy" Prather is here and spent the day schooling two-year-olds.

Dr. Robert Bryan says R. C. Rann is suffering from pneumonia. There was practically no improvement in his condition today. His temperature yesterday again was 1054. This afternoon it was about the same. Horses seldom recover after reaching such high temperature.

Jockey J. Lee arrived tonight. His mounts will be made by Ben Jacobs.

Modjeska, dam of Siddons and Bernays, foaled a handsome bay colt by Wadsworth at Walnut Hill Farm last night.

Harry Stanhope has purchased from L. P. Tarlton as a prize at the Blue Grass Fair last fall. Marechal Nell, full sister to Rhoda B., the dam of the Epsom Derby winner Orby, is the mare to be mated with the French stallion by Mr. Stanhope.

Hoodoo has a bay colt by Ornus at Adelbert Stud.

Winner—Blk. c, by Colonel Wheeler—Prejudice (trained by H. E. Rowell).

Went to post at 2:09. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same. Prudent beat the barrier and won all the way, but probably scored a lucky win. Ocean Queen, shuffled back quickly, closed a gap in the last quarter and made a cyclonic finish. Bill Eaton, from a slow start, got into quick forward contention and dropped back suddenly, but came again and was a game third. Pomare, away slowly, showed superior early speed, but was messed about in the closing drive and ran a fine race. Altamor, away poorly, closed a big gap and is promising. Sir Barry had scant chance at the start. Traffic was shuffled back at the start.

Orchan, after being reserved in nearest pursuit of the pacemaker all the way, was a tenacious second and is also improving. Nabonassar ran in lucky and forward contention from start to finish. Pontotoc, virtually left, steadily improved his position into a fast going and close up fourth and was best. THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

W. Miller, at Oakland, scored the honors last week, riding eight winners, and displacing C. H. Shilling for first place. D. McCarthy piloted five during the six days of racing, while E. Dugan, W. Kelly and J. McIntyre rode four each. The standing of the thirty leading jockeys from January 1 to and including the racing of April 18, is as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey J. Lee will ride for W. J. Young during the Lexington meeting. Jockey Harry Stone, whose license was revoked by the National Steeplechase and Hunt Associa-tion, has been reinstated.

C. Rann has a high fever according to re-from Lexington and it is said will not be a er for the Kentucky Derby.

starter for the Kentucky Derby.

Two jumpers and a flat runner have been shipped to Pimlico for the approaching meeting by Ivan Fox, the Philadelphia sportsman.

Meelick and Uncle, from the stable of S. C. Hildreth, have been entered in the Canadian Derby of $3,000, to be run at Fort Erie, July 27.

Eugene Frischoff's Dandalo was the winner of the President of the Republic Cup for steeplechasers at Paris Saturday. The race was run in a snowstorm.

Walter Miller, who is under contract to T. H. Williams, owner of the Oakland track at a salary of $1,500 per month, will not ride on the eastern tracks until June.

J. K. Frayling will have charge of the western string of William Gerst. Jim Blute will continue to train his horses in the east, while T. Pierce will look after the steeplechasers.

The stable of Sam Lazarus has arrived from the south and is quartered at Belmont Park. The Texan's horses will be trained by P. J. Malone, who also halls from the Lone Star State.

also halls from the Lone Star State.

Mose Goldblatt received the first license issued this season by the State Racing Commission of Kentucky. The oldest trainer to get a license was Frank A. Jones, who is eighty years old.

Ellicott, winner of the Buffalo Derby last year and a number of promising two-year-olds in charge of trainer G. W. Graydou, have been shipped to Baltimore from New Orleans by John Madigan.

Ellicott is said to be in excellent condition.

Eugene Leigh, the manager of the largest public stable that ever has been trained on the French turf.

has made the announcement that, as the result of a racing scandal in which he was involved at Le Trembly, he will sell out the horses he owns in his own name and quit France.

"I find the demand for useful horses in training is better this year than it was last year, or for the year before, for that matter," said John E. Madden at Lexington the other day. "I began the season with sixty-five horses and have sold twice as many as I did up to this time last year."

The name Hampton Stable has been chosen as that under which Courtland H. Smith and Jay O'Brien will jointly race. The name is the same as that used by Charles Dwyer and Sam Deimel when, as partners, they raced Africander with such marked success some few seasons ago.
"Umbrella" Bill McGuigan, former turfman but "Umbrella" Bill McGuigan, former turfman but now an enthusiastic worker for "reform," may enter the race for state seenator in Arkansas in an effort to defeat 0. H. Sumpter, the regular democratic nominee and a known friend of racing, who advocates the modification of the present antiracing law. McGuigan, in a signed statement, says unless some other candidate enters the field in a few days to defeat Sumpter, he will.

Went to post at 2:57. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Jimmy Lane was easily best and was never thoroughly extended in any part of the running, jumped boldly and won all the way. Gus Straus was the only one to offer any semblance of contention and followed the winner resolutely, but fell very lame in the last half mile. King Castle jumped well. Esquire showed a flash of early speed, but tired in the first turn of the field and fell four jumps from the finish. The winner OHCPS

Winner—B. f. by Ben Brush—Fair Vision (trained by H. T. Griffin).

Went to post at 3:54. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving. Trance, evidently a high-class filly, always outfooted her opponents and won all the way in track record time. Fitz Herbert, in close quarters to the final furlong, finished resolutely, but did not threaten the winner. Erbert closed a gap and came fast in the final drive. Personal ran well and had no mishaps. Sea Swell was a close contender to the final sixteenth, then tired badly. Hoyle made up ground. Voodoo showed speed, but raced green and quit near the finish. Apron was off poorly and pocketed. The winner was entered for $2,000; no bid.

Mazuma, off forwardly, set the pace gamely all the way and was going away at the end. Montauk soon got into closest pursuit and was a fast going second. Red Bonnet, in a tangle at the start, was always in close quarters and was taken to the inside in the stretch, where she had no chance to come through, was then taken out to the outside and finished very resolutely. Almandine showed speed, but tired badly Winner—B. c, by Golden Maxim—Miss Laudeman (trained by T. Welsh).

Went to post at 4:52. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second and third driving. Preceptor, a rapid breaker, ran into the lead at once and, setting the pace fast, had something left at the finish. Wildpigeon quickly got into nearest pursuit and was always second best. Siskin raced very green and swerved all over the track, but was driven all of the last furlong and is sure to improve. Guy Fisher was speedy, but tired right at the end. The others were outrun all the way.
